6 years, that's the time it took me from my first Police application to my first Hiring letter. It's a little-known fact for many starting out, and a very real reality for most that are in the process; that most Applicants don't make it through the hiring process on their first time out. I've probably made all of the mistakes there are to make, from not being prepared for Oral Boards and turning in inaccurate applications. This book doesn't just teach you how to be a standout applicant; it show's how to pick agencies, what Departments look for, and how to plan out your selections so that it benefits not only you but your family as well. In the end, I hope you avoid the hiring process pitfalls that plague so many and learn how to skyrocket the top of any hiring list, in a shorter time than it took me.

A few words about Dostoevsky himself may help the English reader to understand his work. Dostoevsky was the son of a doctor. His parents were very hard-working and deeply religious people, but so poor that they lived with their five children in only two rooms. The father and mother spent their evenings in reading aloud to their children, generally from books of a serious character. Though always sickly and delicate Dostoevsky came out third in the final examination of the Petersburg school of Engineering. There he had already begun his first work, "Poor Folk." This story was published by the poet Nekrassov in his review and was received with acclamations. The shy, unknown youth found himself instantly something of a celebrity. A brilliant and successful career seemed to open before him, but those hopes were soon dashed. In 1849 he was arrested.
